

Elder Care Issues

Here are some of the many issues the family of an aging person may face that the mediator can help them to address and resolve:

- Driving and transportation
- Living arrangements
- Finances and bill paying
- Medical decisions
- End of Life decision-making
- Inheritance, Estate and Trust matters
- Personal property distribution
- Family communication
- Decision making processes
- Including the voice of the Elder
- Family members' roles and responsibilities
- Caregiver burnout
- Assistance to avoid court guardianships
